Kettler Kapers

By TEO CUNNINGHAM, Lomita 232-J

Well folks, the Fourth is over, and that means that summer is well on its way. Hope you all had a nice holiday . . . and didn't get burned on those fire-works.

It's been a long week-end. Lots of people took advantage of it to take short trips. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of Fellows, Calif., were house guests of Margaret and Gene Beavers, of Middlebrook Rd., for the three-day vacation, returning to their home last Monday. They are Margaret's aunt and uncle.

Another couple taking a short jaunt were Jack and Lola Crow of Huber St., who along with daughters Anita and Andrea went to Crystal Lake. Lola reports that they had a wonderful time, but it was so crowded that the ranger had to open up an upper camp ground area that usually isn't opened up until later in the season. And then for excitement they found a good-sized rattler curled up in a clump of scrub oak almost under their noses, where they had slept all night. The kids found it, and thinking it was their imagination, Jack and Lola didn't pay too much attention to them, but when they kept insisting, Jack investigated and found it to be true. Brrr, makes me have cold chills just thinking about it!

In the true spirit of friendship and neighborliness, nine families got together on the 4th of July for a picnic at Walteria Park. On hand were the Joe Helphands, Gene Beavers, Carmen Nelson and Keith, Jean Loy and children Linda and Larry, the Jim Moreheads, the Harry Wilsons, the Ralph Wyckoffs, the Mickey Fischers and the E. R. Kozakiewiczes. Everyone had a wonderful time, and really enjoyed themselves . . . and, of course, there was the usual picnic fare, and watermelon . . . What is the Fourth without watermelon?

Have many of you mothers taken advantage of the summer recreation program offered at the various parks? One of our Kettlerites is the director out at the Seaside School, Clifford Graybehl of Huber St. We're proud of you, Clifford, and know that you're doing really worthwhile work.

Sure am glad to hear that Holly Kidner is home from the hospital, where she spent a week as the result of a piece of copper in his eye received during the last war. It has been bothering him for some time, but it seems there isn't much that they can do about it. Hope it doesn't bother too much, Holly.

Speaking of sojourns to the hospital, heard the other day that Bill Hardesty of Huber St. is in the Long Beach Veterans Hospital . . . the cause was "acting up" of wounds received while in service. Too bad, Bill, and we sure hope that you will only be there a very short time, and will be home soon.

I have some new neighbors, most charming ones, Mr. and Mrs. Wade White have bought the house that Jim and Jackie Griffin lived in at 1942 Reynosa Dr. They formerly lived in Redondo Beach, and Wade is employed at the Torrance Brass Foundry as estimator. Connie and Wade are proud parents too; Kenneth, their 3-month-old heir, has already captured my son's heart, and is adorable. Welcome, folks, hope you enjoy living among us. By the way, Connie and Wade are almost local products, as Connie is from Rolling Hills, and Wade is from Redondo Beach.

This week our greetings to Larry Helphand, Mary Jean Winklerbauer, George Scruggs, Donna Tidmarsh and Dennis Walden, who all had birthdays, and not to forget Anita Crow, who will be 8 years old Sunday. Aaron and Hazel Sullivan celebrated their wedding anniversary last Sunday, so they should rate a greeting too!

Have you been wondering why you haven't seen the Sullivans and the Griffins around? Both have moved from their homes on Reynosa Dr. to new homes in Lakewood Park. We'll miss them around, but are happy for them, for isn't it fun, moving into a new house?

Another Easterner enjoying our hospitality is Mrs. N. Immesberger of Corona, N. Y., mother of Mrs. Iris (Mathew) Phillips of 1943 Reynosa Dr. Wingling in a week ago yesterday, she is here for an indefinite stay. Last Friday was her birthday, so she was the honored guest at a family get-together at the Phillips

Hollywood Riviera Boy Scouts are well pleased at the results of their recent doughnut sale, reports Mrs. Henry Miller, 175 Via Los Miradores. She said the final tally showed 385 dozen doughnuts sold. Mr. Henry Miller, chairman of the doughnut drive, and Stan Southern, both very active members of Scouting, added that the proceeds will go towards sending the boys to summer camp. Those were double-powered doughnuts for those who aided the local Scouts by buying them. Purchasers not only enjoyed the doughnuts but will derive added pleasure from the fact that their taste for pastry helped many of our Riviera boys to attend summer camp.

Speaking of summer camps, Betsy Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Shaw, 220 Via Linda Vista, and friend Jean Key, 416 Calle Mayor, spent last week at summer camp. The location was Salt Andrew's Choir camp at Big Bear, camp of the Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Torrance.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Malone, 139 Via Los Altos, on Tuesday, June 24, at Torrance Hospital, was a 7-lb., 10-oz. girl.

No birthday is complete without a cake, so the very delicious dinner was finished off with a lovely homemade one.

Here's your chance, neighbors, to take that first aid class that you have been wanting to take for so long, and to be taught by Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson of Rena St. It started Monday, July 7, and will be held each Monday and Wednesday thereafter from 7 to 10 p.m. The class will be held at the Red Cross building at 1764 Torrance Blvd. Interested persons may still enroll.

The Walt Schaefers on Gramercy Ave. are a busy family. They were recently named to be on the dance committee for the coming year of the Schaefer Club, and Rose is the newly-appointed social welfare chairman of the Catholic Daughters of America. She is interested in obtaining usable, wearable clothing, and magazines that would be suitable for the hospital patients at Harbor General Hospital. If you have any of either you may call her at Lomita 780-J or your columnist. Or if you want to, you may leave them at her home at 2806 Gramercy Ave. . . . If she isn't home, please leave them on the back doorstep.

Dick and Donna Clutter and children Jack and Ricky Joe returned this week from a two-week vacation in Mayfield, Utah. Making the trip by car, every minute was enjoyed, but as on all vacations, time goes much too fast and farewells are always reluctant, and bidding goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christiansen, Donna's parents, was no exception. An only child to hear that they had such an enjoyable time, but it's nice to see them around again, too.

Fishing and relaxation were the objective of the Jimmy Way, Jr. when they went to the Big Bear for the week. The catch was good, the sun warm and restful, and before they knew it, their time was gone. Home, Jack and Mary Rose got good tans; Madeline rested and relaxed; and Joyce just enjoyed herself while daddy Jimmy fished to his heart's content. Sounds like what a vacation should be like!

Hear that there were a few Kettlerites at the Torrance High School Alum dance at Alondra clubhouse last Saturday night. The Gordon Joneses, the Walt Shanon, the Joseph Helphands and the Jim Moreheads, to name a few.

New Treatment For Arthritis And Muscle Pain

whom they have named Wendy Jean. She joined her brother, 2½-year-old Douglas James, to make a foursome of the Malone family.

Judge and Mrs. John Shidler, 317 Camino de las Colinas, hosted a Sunday evening buffet last week for over fifty guests. Turkey and ham headed the buffet menu, while guests enjoyed playing various group participation games. Riviera guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Phil Shaw, Hal Racek, William A. Mason, Raymond Hole, Richard Blakeley, Henry Miller, Gordon MacCrac, Walter Garra-brand, Max Van Tine, Ross Dorsett, Bill Beckman and Reg Roberts.

David and Dorothy Soule, 304 Via Pasqual, and daughter Barbara, returned from their vacation after visiting San Francisco, Yellowstone Park, Reno, Las Vegas and other communities of Utah, Nevada and Wyoming.

Two hundred South Bay Council Brownies camped out for six days at El Retiro Park. They chose Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week, and the same days of the week preceding for their camping, and were supervised throughout by various den mothers of the council. The Brownies studied woodcraft, outdoor cooking, blueprinting, scavenges and other Brownie projects. Den mothers assisting in the supervising worked in shifts, spelling each other through the days of roughing it. Den mothers and assistants included Alice Regal, Mary Pierce, Betsy Free, Ethel Von Blahkenberg, Maxine Kendall, Dorothy Mulqueen, Manuela M. Lute, Hester Grimsley, Marjorie Ford, Heulah DeLand, Ina Gill and Mrs. J. D. Smille, all of Riviera. They represented Riviera dens 112, 98 and 82.

Writer's cramp is a thing of the past for those addressing or return-addressing their letters "Hollywood-Palos Verdes Park" way. The street has been renamed Palos Verdes Blvd., a much neater substitute. The old name was hung on by original promoters of this area whose grandiose schemes included a parkway from Riviera to Carson St. in Torrance. The only paved part lies between the Palos Verdes line and the highway. One fly remains in the ointment for those who live on the street's highway end. Actually that part, one short, angling block, is in Redondo Beach. Similar action should be taken by Redondo to make the change uniform.

Jack and Marge Walker, 105 Paseo de Granada, and their three children, Robby, Phil and Steve, returned last week from a two-week vacation. They drove to Peoria, Ill., where they visited their families. Their only comment on the cross-country drive was that it was a torture to make it in two weeks. They were on the road almost constantly and report they were worn out from the stress. Never again in a short time, say they.

The noise, lights, and confusion that is the Fourth of July captured the hearts of our young ones last weekend. Although at five years old they cannot know why there is a Fourth, at least at that age we are sure they are all for it. The thrills come with the dusk of evening and their first sparkler. We like to think that, if all of Riviera could be captured in a single painting, it might be one that would grace the front cover of the Saturday Evening Post's July 4th copy. At least our front lawn looked like with Jack and Jill and a dozen of their young friends gathered in the evening to watch the mounting display of fire showers, Piccolo Peter and Houses of Fire. We grow tips, having left the fairyland of youth, could only capture the full thrill of it by trying to look at it through our youngster's eyes. We looked hard, as the evening went on, and I think that just before the last dizzy burst of fireworks, the curtain of the past drew back just a little, and the magic—the real magic—of the Fourth shown through to us. The home-sun fun of the Fourth was aided as usual by ice cream cones all around, with soda pop and other tidbits to follow. And so we fired off the magi's special box of fireworks, ate and laughed. And once in a while, we looked up—and around us, and saw that on laws all over the Riviera, there were other groups just like us—all having a real Fourth of July. Somehow, it seemed as though we were all a little closer together, with a little more of a joint venture feeling among us, because of these things. We're glad there's a Fourth, July; we're grateful that it's our common heritage.

Riviera Sportmen's softball team picked up another tally in the win column when they trounced the Moose softballers at WALTERIA PARK. Captain Manager Jim Hennings led 14 to 4. Fourteen players turned out and the greater number of players again helped the team to win. Hennings was able to place the players in positions where they did their best work. Riviera neighbors turned out in force to root the team to their second league win, he said. Next game is slated for Wednesday, July 16, when the Riverians face the Lions at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Clayton L. Geiger, 300 Paseo de Gracia, has been named new staff aid chairman for the local Red Cross. Her new job includes the supervision of volunteer staff workers who aid the Red Cross four hours each day.
